Does this sound familiar ?

Morning Meltdowns

Getting ready for the day takes twice as long as it should.

Transition anxiety

Getting ready for the day takes twice as long as it should.

Communication barriers

Your child struggles or doesn't talk.

Always on standby

You have to be right there, step by step, or nothing gets done.

“ He follows his hygiene routines without resistance now. It changed our mornings completely.” – Lucrezia, Mom
